Weather
February is part of the rainy season in Yogyakarta, so be prepared for rain during the dialogue including on field days. The temperature is estimated to 24-32°C with humidity 62-95% (link); however in the evenings it can get cool, so bringing a light sweater is advisable.

Dress
For the field, we advise bringing light shirts, closed toe shoes, rain gear, insect repellent, hat and modest dress—covering legs and shoulders. For the meetings days, dress as business casual.

Health
Please seek professional advice from your doctor, who you should visit 4/6 weeks before you depart, to arrange proper preparation for the trip. Environmental conditions in Yogyakarta and surrounding areas included into a tropical climate (hot/dry and rainy). Be wary of symptoms influenza (flu), because sometimes the weather changes instantly.
