Group of right holders

What sort of investment is desired to build on local control?
What sort of investment is desired to build on local control?

- Land and natural resources rights recognition
- Information and education
- Skills development
  - Institutional building
  - Networks
  - Information centres
- To get youth involved in community affairs
- Forest inventory and forest handback
- Carbon trade, environmental goods and services
- Small and medium forest enterprises
- Women inclusion and empowerment
.....What sort of investment is desired to build on local control?

• Policy and advocacy
  – Mobilisation
  – Building relationships with governments
  – Building relationships with international organizations