

Field Questions

1. What objective(s) are you trying to achieve on your land?
2. What factors do you consider when making decisions about your land?
3. What sources (or types) of information influence your decision?
4. Who tries to influence your decisions?
5. Are there challenges that keep you from achieving your objective(s)?
6. What land use decisions have been the most successful? What is an example of a successful outcome?
7. What land use decisions have been the least successful? What is an example of an unsuccessful outcome?
8. What is your vision for your property in ten years? What are obstacles to achieving this vision?
9. What help do you need to achieve your vision? And who can best help you achieve your vision?
10. Are there specific laws or policies that support or hinder your practices?