

The Forests Dialogue

STEERING COMMITTEE MEMBER

Miriam Prochnow

Miriam is an educator and environmental specialist with an emphasis on proposing and monitoring public policies and environmental education. She is the President of Apremavi and was the Executive Director of the Brazilian Forests Dialogue from 2008 until 2018. She is one of the founders of the Brazil Climate, Forests and Agriculture Coalition. She has 30 years of experience coordinating civil society organizations, carrying out natural resource conservation and sustainable use projects, campaigns, institutional development, and producing materials and publications in NGOs, networks, and the Federal Government. She is an Avina leader and amateur photographer.

Title: President

Organization: Association for the Preservation of the Environment and Life (Apremavi)

Location: Brazil

Nationality: Brazilian

Contact: miriamscverde@gmail.com