Historical Mapuche's Encroachment

Past and Present

Mapuche's future ?

Forestry Dialogue & Relationship with forestry companies at early stages

Co-Chairs Reflections on Field Visits

1. Three parts involved should be involved:

Communities, Companies and Government

Strong asymmetry on either presence or active engagement

Co-Chairs Reflections on Field Visits

2. Strong lack of satisfaction from communities towards current situation

Co-Chairs Reflections on Field Visits

3. Small scale livelihood actions that will enable community representatives to coexist and reestablish ancestral harmonic relationship with their land

Co-Chairs Perceptions on Field Visits

4. Forestry practices dominating certain landscape & ancestral sacred lands

5. Land tenure, land use substitution, increased tension

6. Augment the support to PFNM (Non-Wood Forestry Products) such as mushrooms, small wood industry enterprises, honey, berries and medicinal plants for enhancing local economy

Co-Chairs Reflections on Field Visits

7. The need for a continued dialogue regarding indigenous land & land tenure and land restitution

8. Recent (40-50 years) cultural trait of Chileans not being used to dialogue, thus the absence of dialogue leading to social asymmetries

Co-Chairs Perceptions on Field Visits

9. The start of the walk towards a fare balance and there already exists the effort

It depends on forestry companies grant access to reestablish productive chain and increase area for small scale harvesting
