THE FORESTS DIALOGUE

Field Dialogue on Free, Prior, and Informed Consent

Pekanbaru, Sumatra, Indonesia – 12-15 October 2010

Location

The Aryaduta Hotel Pekanbaru
Jl. Diponegoro No. 34
Pekanbaru 28116, Riau, Indonesia
T. +62 761-44-200

Objectives

- ➔ Share understanding of the basis for FPIC among varied stakeholders including indigenous peoples, local communities, forestry companies, development agencies and relevant government bodies;
- ➔ Examine and learn lessons from concrete situations where consent-based approaches have been, or are being, used;
- ➔ Make mutually agreeable recommendations and facilitate some commitments and preparedness for their uptake, on practical application of FPIC to the benefit of affected parties.

Co-Chairs

Marcus Colchester – Forest Peoples Programme

Minnie Degawan – KADIOAN

James Griffiths – World Business Council for Sustainable Development

Avi Mahaningtyas – Partnership for Governance Reform in Indonesia - Kemitraan

Program

Day 1 – Tuesday, 12 October

The group will split into three smaller groups and visit three separate sites. In order to arrange for the most interesting field visits, it will be a long day so please expect to return to the hotel after dinner. All three groups will be returning to the Aryaduta Hotel for the night.

7:00 Depart early morning from Hotel lobby for the field. Lunch and dinner will be provided, as well as snacks on the bus with frequent stops along the way for the use of restrooms.

Tour 1 – Lubuk Jering (Siak District), acacia plantation (3 hrs drive)

Tour 2 – Pangean (Kuantan Singingi District), oil palm plantation (4.5 hrs drive)

Tour 3 – Teluk Meranti, Kampar Peninsula (Pelalawan District), REDD project (5 hrs drive)
